RECAP OF 20 SEPTEMBER MEETING

ATTENDANCE: 12 + Ruth Donk, Tracy Crosby, and Barb Barkely on-line.

GUEST: Phil Trautman, Director of Clifton Springs Library, our presenter.

50/50: David Michaels. "Put it Back". Thank you David. The big pot is now $220.

PROGRAM: Phil Trautman, Director of the Clifton Springs Library since June of 2020, brought us up to speed on the amazing array of programs and services our library has to offer. A focus of the library is the early literacy "Story Time" program led by Becky Sloan. The adult literacy program works as a clearing house for English as a Second Language (ESL) to help people learn English—a growing need in our community. With regard to collections, graphic novels are very popular with young people and have become a priority. Digital literacy programs have been offered along with tax preparation, estate planning, and final planning. An innovative program allows people to borrow culinary equipment. The library will hold a silent auction on Nov. 19 to raise funds to help support these, and many other, programs. Phil thanked the Clifton Springs community for the great support given to the library. Their goal is to listen and respond to the needs of the community. The library recently celebrated its 125th anniversary. It was originally chartered in 1895.
