- 3) SAVE THE DATE: Our club will be sponsoring a Chicken BBQ on Sat. Oct. 15 at Tops Friendly Markets parking lot. Jeff Gallahan will do the chicken.

RECAP OF 2 AUGUST MEETING:

Attendance: 16 plus Kris Blair on Zoom

Guest: Chelsea DeBoover—our presenter

50/50: Doris Hunter, donated to Camp Onseyawa. Thanks Doris. Big pot is now $189.

PROGRAM: Chelsea DeBoover, Development Associate for the CSH&C Foundation, brought us up to date on the final phase of the $32 million Clifton Springs Hospital and Clinic renovation project entitled: Your Medical Village, The Lisk Morris Comprehensive Care Center. Our Rotary Club pledged $15,000 to this project which was matched by the Lisk -Morris Foundation. The last leg of this project is the The Comprehensive Psychiatric Emergency Program (CPEP) which will be a state-of-the-art facility staffed 24/7 with skilled clinicians, psychiatrists, and support staff to provide acute behavioral health support to those in need.

The new area will serve as a dedicated, safe space for provision of the following: • Treatment rooms to conduct emergency psychiatric evaluations & enhanced chemical dependency screenings. • Housing of 4 extended observation beds for those in need of monitored supervision for up to 72 hours. • Hub for 24/7 deployment of mobile crisis outreach into the community with strong law enforcement partnership (serving Ontario, Seneca, Wayne, & Yates Counties). • Hub for access to crisis residence beds for those in need of behavioral health respite. 24/7 crisis phone counseling.

Chelsea also announced that the hospital has approved $30K to improve and upgrade the Rotary Room in the fall. This will include new AV equipment for our use. She also invited our club to take a behind the scenes tour of the new CPEP facility before it officially opens, probably sometime in Oct. It was a very informative program.
